Dear MICHAEL SINISKY, [REDACTED]

To confirm our telephone conversation on 04/11/2016, Department Stores National Bank has authorized us to offer a settlement on your client's account. The settlement amount is $300.00. You agreed that your client will pay the settlement in 1 payments in accordance with the schedule on the reverse. Department Stores National Bank will report any discharge of indebtedness as required by the Internal Revenue Code and corresponding IRS regulations. Please contact your tax advisor if you have any questions.

The state of New York requires us to provide you the following notice:

If a creditor or debt collector receives a money judgment against you in court, state and federal laws may prevent the following types of income from being taken to pay the debt:

1. Supplemental security income, (SSI);
2. Social security;
3. Public assistance (welfare);
4. Spousal support, maintenance (alimony) or child support;
5. Unemployment benefits;
6. Disability benefits;
7. Workers' compensation benefits;
8. Public or private pensions;
9. Veterans' benefits;
10. Federal student loans, federal student grants, and federal work study funds; and
11. Ninety percent of your wages or salary earned in the last sixty days.

This is an attempt to collect a debt and any information obtained will be used for that purpose. This communication is from a debt collector.

Sincerely,
