Re: NEW CENTURY FINANCIAL SERVICES, INC. vs GLENN [REDACTED]
Supreme Court of the State of New York
County OF NASSAU Index No [REDACTED]
P&P File Number [REDACTED]

Dear Mike:

If a creditor or debt collector receives a money judgment against you in Court, state and federal laws may prevent the following types of income from being taken to pay the debt:

- 1) Supplemental security income, (SSI);
- 2) Social security;
- 3) Public Assistance (welfare);
- 4) Spousal support, maintenance (alimony) or child support;
- 5) Unemployment benefits;
- 6) Disability benefits;
- 7) Workers' compensation benefits;
- 8) Public or private pensions;
- 9) Veterans benefits;
- 10) Federal student loans, federal student grants and federal work study funds; and
- 11) Ninety percent of your wages or salary earned in the last 60 days.

Please allow this letter to confirm your conversation with a representative from this office on July 8, 2015 wherein this office agreed to accept $900.00 as settlement in full. In order for this agreement to be valid, payment must be received by this office no later than July 24, 2015. In the event of default, Plaintiff may proceed to enforce the amount of $3,413.36 less credit for payment(s) made plus applicable interest.

Should you have any questions or wish to discuss the matter further, please feel free to contact my assistant Brittani Rawls at extension 5324.

Very truly yours,

Darren H. Tanaka
