Defendant(s).

STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT

IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED that the above-entitled action is settled under the following terms and conditions:

1. Defendant(s) will pay to the attorneys for the Plaintiff(s), Smith Carrod Levy & Wan, P.C. at their offices, 5036 Jericho Turnpike, Commack, NY 11725, the sum of $2,000.00 consisting of $2,000.00 principal and $0.00 costs and disbursements as follows:

(A) $2,000.00 on or before February 10, 2013.

2. In the event of a default of the aforesaid payment(s) (if you fail to make a payment on the date that it is due) Plaintiff(s) may, upon seven (7) days written notice to Defendant(s), enter judgment for the full amount sued for in the complaint less any payments made prior thereto together with all interest, costs and disbursements.

3. The Defendant(s) appears generally herein and submits to the jurisdiction of the Court.

4. Upon full compliance with this Stipulation, this matter shall be deemed fully satisfied and discontinued. The Defendant(s) counterclaim, if any, is hereby discontinued with prejudice.

5. A signed facsimile copy of this stipulation shall be deemed an original for all purposes.

6. The principal sum of the settlement set forth in paragraph numbered 1 is net of any and all payments and/or credits made prior hereto, subject to clearance, and the Defendant(s) acknowledges that the Defendant(s) have received appropriate credit for such payments and/or credits.

7. If you apply for a new American Express account in the future, your application may not be approved because you have not repaid the full balance owed on the account. Even if you were to repay the balance owed on the account, any future application may still be declined based on American Express' evaluation of your creditworthiness and other factors. American Express may be required to file a form 1099C with the Internal Revenue Service for any cancelled debt of $600.00 or more. You should consult your tax advisor concerning any tax questions.
